

1 a law finally.

2 This goes to the heart of these subjects, and 3 the leading case on this subject has been discussed over
4 and over, the Redwood Case, and it is my recollection
5 that in the Court of Appeals, the state in that case
6 was represented by Chief Judge HallHammond, and Circuit
7 Court Judge Harrison L. Winters, who is the highest 8 Federal Court judge we have in the state, and I would like 9 to ask you so that you can put it on the record, who was 10 the counsel for the taxpayer in that case who won the case
11 and started all this mess in the first place?

12 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gallagher.

13 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: As Delegate Case will know,
14 from the copy of the case which I handed to him a few 15 minutes ago, the counsel was Mr. Robert Thomas. Would 16 you also like to know the name of his co-counsel?

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Case.

18 DELEGATE CASE: I think in the parlance of some 19 of the larger firms in Baltimore, they are called asso-
20 ciates.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gallagher.
